

Celebrate Love at Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at The First Residence

February 13, 2017, Cairo at The First Residence, Egypt

It's that time of year where Cupid comes to town, and where better to reconnect and showcase that love than Four Seasons Hotel Cairo at The First Residence, a luxury hotel in Cairo.

Spoil a loved one and spend Valentine's Day with romantic experiences that will fill the heart with love.

An extraordinary black and white theme at La Gourmandise will indeed sweep anyone off their feet. An extravagant four-course sumptuous dinner and the sweet sounds of the famous violinist Samira Riachy, live singer Natalie, guitar and piano tunes all create a symphony of style and elegance to make the perfect date. For a true romantic Italian experience, STRADA is all dressed up in red and is completed with a four-course delicious authentic Italian dinner in Cairo, live romantic music and a spectacular Nile view as a backdrop.

An oriental vibe is added to the international day of love in Aura as loved ones gather and share a mouth-watering Lebanese cuisine and are serenaded with live oud music for a truly memorable night.

What's more romantic than spending a tranquil time with a soulmate with a spa retreat that will make the heart beat. At one of the most luxurious spas in Cairo, an aromatic massage in the Nile view couple's spa suite followed by a 30 minute use of the whirlpool and sauna with two glasses of sparkling wine, chocolate hearts and rose petals to provide the perfect romantic experience.
