

Celebrate the Holy Month of Ramadan at Four Seasons Hotel Doha

Hotel redefines the Ramadan experience with a range of authentic, yet modern, Iftar and Sohour culinary offerings available throughout the property

April 24, 2017, Doha, Qatar

Four Seasons Hotel Doha announces plans for the Holy Month of Ramadan, taking place in the end of May 2017, with an extensive selection of culinary experiences. To honour this special time of year, guests may choose between the Hotel's distinct Ramadan tent or celebrate at the Hotel's signature lounges: Shisha Terrace, Seasons Tea Lounge and Arabica. Offering more than just a culinary venue, Four Seasons Hotel Doha has redefined the Ramadan experience with myriad bespoke options to gather with family and friends during the Holy Month.

As Doha's premier destination for the holiday, the Hotel's spacious 758 square metre (8,159 square foot) Ramadan tent – located within Al-Mirqab Ballroom - showcases a contemporary design, influenced by traditional Arabic architecture, resulting in a stylish yet sophisticated ambiance. The culinary experience includes extensive Iftar and Sohour menus featuring traditional Ramadan cuisine, and complemented by an array of delicious international dishes, including 25 buffet and live cooking stations. Highlights include a special Ramadan and Qatari dishes, a Japanese sushi station, dim sum carousel, pasta and carving station, Arabic and western desserts station and many more.

The Iftar buffet is served daily from 6:00 to 8:30 pm and is QAR 235 per person, and the Sohour buffet is from 10:00 pm to 1:30 am at QAR 270 per person. Children ages 5-12 years receive 50 percent savings from the regular price.

New this year, Four Seasons is expanding the range of Ramadan options well beyond the Hotel's admired tent with the debut of specialty menus at Seasons Tea Lounge, Shisha Terrace and Arabica throughout the Holy Month. Four Seasons Executive Chef Ahmad Sleiman has created a delectable dessert buffet at Seasons Tea Lounge, and Shisha Terrace includes a delicious Iftar and Sohour set menu. Guests may also enjoy Shisha Terrace's signature dishes from the a la carte menu.

Four Seasons Hotel Doha, renowned for its luxurious accommodations and intuitive service, is an idyllic resort-like setting to enjoy Ramadan. Guests can surrender to exquisite dining options, warm and genuine hospitality, and a range of exclusive privileges with the Hotel's Stay Longer – Fourth Night Free Package. Guests who book three consecutive nights receive a complimentary fourth night, which equals one more day to relax and enjoy the hotel's extensive facilities. Additional packages are also available.

Ramadan is a time for family, friends and reflection. Create unforgettable memories by celebrating traditional Ramadan festivities with loved ones at Four Seasons Hotel Doha. For reservations, call +974 4494 8600 or email dining.doh@fourseasons.com.
