

Four Seasons Resort Hualalai Introduces Tennis Pro Michael Chang's Tennis Insider Camp

For five days, August 7-11, 2017, guests are invited to learn, train and mingle with top insiders from the world of tennis and fitness as tennis champion Michael Chang leads an innovative and intimate tennis experience at the Five-Star, Five-Diamond Hawaii Island resort

June 1, 2017, Hawaii, Hualalai, U.S.A.

Michael Chang hosts the Tennis Insider Camp at Four Seasons Resort Hualalai this summer - a first of its kind, bringing together top names in tennis and fitness for one week of immersive tennis training and education. The International Tennis Hall of Famer and French Open Champion has created a five-day experience unlike any other and exclusively available to guests of the Resort. The itinerary is curated to include educational and informative sessions on and off the court offering guests an all-star panel's take on the science and winning technique of the sport, concluding with social gatherings each evening taking place at various settings throughout the beachfront Resort.

“We are thrilled to welcome Michael Chang to Four Seasons Resort Hualalai,” says Colin Clark, General Manager at Four Seasons Resort Hualalai. “With eight Rebound Ace surface courts, we have a world-class tennis facility in the midst of our Resort, and providing this one-of-a-kind venue for Michael’s unique Insider Camp concept is a very fitting partnership.”

Joining Chang for this tennis experience are renowned experts in tennis and fitness including Todd Martin, former ATP Top Four player and current CEO of the International Tennis Hall of Fame; Jose Higueras, renowned tennis coach and director of coaching for United States Tennis Association; Jon Wertheim, Sports Illustrated Executive Editor and 60 Minutes Contributing Correspondent; Keri Glassman, nutritionist and celebrity health expert; and Dr. Mark Kovacs, tennis performance science pioneer. Each of these special guests will share their expertise in workouts or small workshops aimed at honing the skills, knowledge, and lifestyle choices necessary to enhance tennis performance, overall fitness and impart a behind-the-scenes appreciation of the sport from its highest levels.

The camp is limited to 16 people, and will provide individual and one-on-one instruction customised to each guest’s tennis ability and areas of focus. Prior to arrival, guests will complete a survey regarding their nutrition, tennis skills and goals, allowing the Tennis Insider Camp team to create personalised programming and instruction.

Michael Chang’s Tennis Insider Camp is only available at Four Seasons Resort Hualalai from August 7 through 11, 2017. The experience costs USD 5,000 per person in addition to five nights accommodation at Four Seasons Resort Hualalai. To view the itinerary for the camp or to make a reservation visit the Resort’s website or call 808 325 8000.
