

U.S. News & World Report Names Four Seasons Resort Hualalai #1 in the United States

February 3, 2017, Hawaii, Hualalai, U.S.A.

Four Seasons Resort Hualalai has been named the best resort in the United States U.S. News & World Report. Recognised as one of the most reputable travel rankings in the country, U.S. News & World Report ranks Four Seasons Resort Hualalai the #1 Best Resort in the USA, #1 Best Hawaii Hotel, and #1 Best Hawaii - Big Island Resort.

"We are thrilled to be recognised by U.S. News & World Report for the sixth year in a row as the top resort in the United States," says Robert Whitfield, Regional Vice President and General Manager of Four Seasons Resort Hualalai. "In the past year we have debuted new programs and experiences for our guests, while striving to continue to provide the genuine and personalised service we are known for paired with our world-class amenities."

U.S. News & World Report identifies the best hotels using a comprehensive methodology based on reputation among professional travel experts, guest reviews, and hotel class ratings. U.S. News has analysed more than 5,000 hotels across the USA, the Caribbean, Mexico, Canada, and Europe. Among the four- to five-star hotels analysed, the top 10 percent were selected as award winners in the annual Best Hotels in the USA list.

Four Seasons Resort Hualalai is currently offering the Experience More – Nightly Resort Credit package, providing guests with up to USD 200 Resort credit daily, which can be applied to incidental charges during their stay, including spa, ocean activities, golf and beachside dining. For reservations call 888 340 5662 or book online.
